need groceries, prescriptions, visitations and the routine errands that are difficult to complete. "It's just my nature to help people and I have a great way with older people," said Sherry. Sauret's Errand Service is the perfect business for this mother/daughter team that genuinely loves to help others and spend time together.

Sauret's Errand Service offers grocery, personal or gift shopping from the store to your door for only $15 per store plus the cost of your purchase. The Pick Up/Drop Off service is invaluable. Think of the time spent chasing prescriptions, dry cleaning and movie rentals. Pet services include trips to the vet, groomer and drop off/pick up from the kennel. Errands for small businesses and

Fusion Real Estate

Shannon West-Greene takes pride in guiding her clients through the arduous process of buying or selling a home. With a long career beginning in property appraisal leading to a position as an escrow officer for Chicago Title/Fidelity Title, the essential groundwork was established for Shannon to become a realtor. With support of her kids, grandkids and dear friend Cathy Knoefler, Shannon met and surpassed her goal on not only becoming a realtor in March 2008; she earned the New Agent award for exceptional sales performance in her first year. During our economy's difficult years, Shannon gathered her strength, worked hard and always gave her clients the highest level of service possible.

Four years ago, Shannon joined an innovative new agency – Fusion Real Estate; a company that offers realtors a complete business platform on which to create their own business, She adds, "I've always wanted to build my own brand and company. The change was liberating; giving me the freedom to focus on how I believe my clients should be treated." Today, Shannon's dad still influences her life and business with his words, "The key to success is to be true to your heart." Making Forever Friends

- Varian Kennels

Patricia Varian's bond with and unending love for dogs began on the day she was born. After the family dog gave birth, the first picture of Patricia shows her swaddled in a blanket surrounded by a litter of puppies. Growing up, dogs have always been a part of her life. Becoming educated to compliment her intuitive ability to relate to a dog's natural instincts has resulted in a rewarding 25 year career now based from a ranch in

Show #15 for 3 Speckled Hens May 3 and 4 at Paso Event Center

By Millie Drum

What a success story! Beginning in May 2007 with 15 dealers and 300 attendees, the May 2014 show has over 100 dealers from five states and expects more than 4,000 people through the gate. Kathy Marquart says, "Besides authentic early American and primitive antiques, we've added dealers who incorporate vintage furniture, house wares and redesigned jewelry, re-purposed items, rusty farm and industrial items and lighting, European cast offs and anything old that can add character, interest and reflect the homeowners collections and style. We feel it is important to give back a portion of our success. To date we've given over $11,000 to Multiple Sclerosis, American Cancer Society and most recently to Jack's Helping Hand."

Their business allows Kathy, Carrie and Susi to visit big shows like Farm Chicks in Spokane and Junk Bonanza in Minneapolis. After the May show, the Hens are traveling to Europe with two of their favorite dealers, Chris and Dustin of Uber Chic Home who buy antiques and unique house wares and architectural pieces from many different countries. Kathy says, "We are so excited to join them! It promises to be an experience of a lifetime! Hardly your normal tour of Europe! The fall show is October 4 and 5. Visit www.threespeckledhens.com.
